

Changes of Trade Name and others of the Successor Companies in Connection with Change to Holding Company Structure .

As part of DAINIPPON SCREEN MFG. CO., LTD shift to the SCREEN Holding Company structure, we registered a new legal entity which will continue for the semiconductor equipment business operations. This new entity will also include the SOKUDO coat develop track equipment business under the new name. Although this company will start its combined semiconductor equipment business operations from October 1, 2014, please kindly be noticed that SOKUDO Co., Ltd. will change its company name to SCREEN Semiconductor Solutions Co., Ltd. from August 5, 2014 due to strict time schedule to follow the legal procedure for transferring operations from Dainippon Screen Mfg., Semiconductor Equipment Company.

1. Succession of SOKUDO as brand name

Established brand name SOKUDO will continue into future. Unrelated to change of company name, SOKUDO will be the unified brand of the coat/develop track product line and we will maintain SOKUDO as our registered trademark.

2. Name change successor company
